

JOB DESCRIPTION
Production Extrusion Manager
(Number of Positions : 1 / Location : Tanger)

Responsibilities :

- Develops and assures the implementation of the Extrusion section organization, policies, processes, procedures, information systems and cross functional improvement projects in line with corporate standard.
- Oversees the analysis of weekly and monthly extrusion production program in coordination with logistics, supervises the developement and setup of extrusion scheduling program and human ressources allocation.
- Reviews and monitors extrusion program execution progress according to daily schedule and Makes adjustments as needed according to realization rate, extra orders and urgent delivery requests.
- Reviews production reports, checks reported process parameters, changeover and start-up results, wire breaks, overconsumption, control plan results, scrap results. Identifies potential parameters discreapencies, performance gap or organisation and defines immediate corrective actions
- Analyses (daily, weekly, monthly) Extrusion section performance results such as quality, runing time, speed effeciency, scrap, overconsumption results. Identifies performance gap, performs root causes analysis, develops and monitors appropriated actions plans by using Problem Solving tools
- Assures required tools and receipes load according to instructions and compilance of performed first and second level maintenance activites of extrusion lines and its related equipments. Contributes to the development of Term Of Reference (TOR) for new technical equipements and tools acquisition or renovation, verifies technical offers adequacy with TOR, and performs technical reception of new acquired equipements and tools.

Qualifications and Experience :

- Engineering degree (Industrial/ Technical fields)
- 5 years as Manager in Cable manufacturing sector
- French and English

- Manufacturing processes and associated technologies, Extrusion manufacturing process awareness, production planning and scheduling, Process improvement techniques, Quality standards, Continuous improvement techniques, Analytical and problem solving skills, Organizational skills, Budgeting & Cost estimating, Project Management, Risk Management.
- MS Office Softwares (Excel, Words, PPT, ...) et MES, applications ERP
- Behavioral competencies: Communication, Building relationships, Self development
- Managerial competencies : Leading people, Managing performance, Business skills, Developing others